Keyes To Safety LLC - Training Schedule

Safety & Health is both a mindset and a lifestyle choice.

November is the National Diabetes Awareness Month. Diabetes is a life-altering ailment that affects everyone differently. There are multiple versions of diabetes and no two people exhibit the same symptoms or outcomes. Be kind and be aware.

November also marks the changes of the seasons. Winter Preparedness Week is November 15th through the 21st and is a good time for employee involved activities and awareness training.

**Open classes listed by name, you must pre-register by calling, emailing, or prepurchasing placement online. Class sizes are limited to 25% of capacity due to CoVid19 protocols. People are encouraged to social distance, wear masks, and use sanitizers. KTS is using strict cleaning methods and not allowing Mouth-to-Mouth practice on equipment. If your health is compromised, please do not put yourself at risk. There are blended options that allow for classroom learning online with a One-on-One skills practice session with an instructor. This method is accepted by Idaho State licensing agencies due to the skills session with instructor interaction. Other versions will be denied by many authorities.
